

WELCOME TO COFFEE MORNINGS AT ST MARY'S 'Taste & See Cafe'

Taste and See Cafe

Ps 34 V8 NRSV

O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him.

Ps 34 V8 Good News

Find out for yourself how good the Lord is. Happy are those who find safety in Him.

Drinks are available from the servery, please help yourself to cake and/or biscuits. See overleaf for more info.

Whilst here, if you feel you would like to talk to someone in confidence about your experiences of God or your faith, or you would like someone to pray with you or for you, please speak to one of the team.

Our hope is that you will find our 'Taste & See Cafe'

To be a safe space, a haven of refuge, a harbour that is a beacon to the community and provides opportunities for individuals and families to thrive with the feeling of a sense of freedom, a feeling of home, to experience love, peace and security.

Taste and See Cafe

A variety of Teas,
coffee, hot chocolate,
(both served with a milky 'froth' if you like it - just ask!)
cake and biscuits are available
(Donations are appreciated but not necessary)

Please take the opportunity to browse or borrow any of the books on our table.
Again there is no charge for the reflective bookmarks/material however should you wish to make a donation please place in the box provided on the table.

Thank you for coming,
we look forward to welcoming you again.
